INTERNATIONAL YOUTH FESTIVAL OF HISTORIC REENACTMENT

“RUSBORG-2018”

Rusborg is a festival of the early Middle Ages history for the residents and guests of the Lipetsk Oblast.

It is the largest annual international youth festival of military and historic reconstruction at the post-Soviet territory, devoted to the early Middle Ages (the period of the 9th-11th centuries, so called “the epoch of Vikings”), and the second largest festival of the Vikings’ Epoch in Europe.

The Rusborg Festival is a unique time machine providing an opportunity to submerge into the early Middle Ages without leaving the modernity. Where else can one do archery, taste mead, try chain armor, become a blacksmith, a potter and to see a medieval fight?

The interest to the native history begins from the family. So, this festival is the best way for partial parents to turn their children to their motherland’s history.

Learning by playing is the most natural way of cognition of the world for a child. And what if this game is the same way exiting both for the adult and the child? It really is at the festival! Children feel brave as warriors and participant of the historic events. While adults may feel as children and to submerge into the atmosphere of a fairytale at the same time realizing the historical reality.

Rusborg is held in the Lipetsk Oblast for already ten years. All this time the guests may visit the festival for free in a guest day, as the project is not of a commercial nature and, first of all, it serves to draw the attention to the history of Ancient Rus.
